Dear Annie

June Reith's C.V.

It was a pleasure to speak to you the other day. To refresh your memory

I am the lady that Simon Townsend recommended to appear on your show.

I apologies for not sending this documents sooner. I, like some of the general populus recently suffered with that terrible stomach virus.

As promised a synopsis of some my experiences.

I have travelled around the world 5 times enjoying the children and the different cultures of the world.

I have been in Real Estate for over 20 years owning the Laing & Simons Franchise of Wollstonecraft for 3 years and currently operating

June Reith & Associates a Boutique agency. During this time frame I became disenchanted with the lack of ethics of real estate arena and established a Function Co-ordination company .

I really enjoy creating events from inception, organizing all aspect to make it an unforgettable experience for all the invited guests.

I am also proud to boast that I was first chef for Sydney's first International hotel, the Regent in 1982.

Simultaneously I began my charity work with a variety of different organizations that needed funds and awareness directed to their causes.

I have helped raises in the vicinity of $250,000.00

For you're perusals just some references and past projects: -

Agent in focus editorial A Women of Substance by Holly Campbell

The "I Care Campaign" proposal I created for the tourist industry and a list of the responses I received within 2 days.

Hopetown Wyong, A special school for the mildly intellectually handicapped children.

Sugarbabies for Diabetes. Public Relation Officer

Children's Medical Research Institute Westmead

Genes for Jeans Campaign National Campaign

Here for life. Prevention and awareness into youth suicide

Centrecare. Catholic Community Services for the Aged, Disabled, Children, Education, Employment and Family issues

Poster of the Children Medical Research Art union I organised all the prizes and marketing.

I have been counselling people for over 20 years but with no university degree only a degree in my many life's experiences and awareness into the makeup of my fellow man.

I have been told by many friends (especially Simon) that I would be perfect for Beauty and the Beast because my nature and personality.

I am able to view your shooting on the 10th 12th or 13th of April as suggested.

I look forward to hearing from you in the near future!

You're best interested at all times!

Sincerely

June Esther Reith
